

Updated 09/30/2009

State/DDTC Posts Guidance on New Commodity Jurisdiction (CJ) Form DS-4076

Web Notice: Effective September 30, 2009, the new Commodity Jurisdiction (CJ) form, DS-4076, is available for use. Applicants have the option of using the DS-4076 or continuing to prepare letter-type submissions. The DS-4076 will be processed as a paper document, similar to the current letter-type submissions, with appropriate attachments and copies. At a future date, the DS-4076 will go electronic and at the time, all CJs will be submitted using the DS-4076 electronically. Do not send the DS-4076 via email or on a CD at this time as it will not be accepted. We will make a future announcement when we are able to accept the new form electronically. See the Federal Register Notice at and the DS4076 at . The DS-4076 may also be accessed through the Commodity Jurisdiction tab, which contains additional information. Comments and suggestions regarding the form should be sent to the DDTC Response Team .